

2013 SPONSOR OPTIONS FOR RACE, ETHNICITY, AND PLACE CONFERENCES

PARTNER.

The partner is the highest level of sponsorship and involves at least a two-conference commitment. A Partner commits $20,000 per conference. The Partner's representative serves on the National REP Planning Committee for two conferences and has an active role in the planning of those conferences by organizing at least one event, one special or plenary session, and other conference functions. A Partner receives special recognition in all advertising and promotion, including the REP website, and during the conferences sponsored. The Partner receives ten (10) free registrations (any combination of faculty and students) that include the conference meals. These complimentary registrations must be distributed in advance of the conference.

PREMIER SPONSOR.

A Premier Sponsor commits a minimum of $5,000 in advance of a REP Conference. The expenditure of that contribution is decided in advance of the conference by written agreement between the Premier Sponsor and the National Planning Committee. A premier Sponsor receives five free registrations for that conference and distributes them in advance of the conference. Premier Sponsors receive recognition in all conference advertising and promotion, and during that conference.

EVENT SPONSOR.

An Event Sponsor contributes a minimum of $3,000 to support a special function at a single conference. This may involve sponsoring or co-sponsoring a luncheon, dinner, reception or some other function, which is agreed upon in advance by the Event Sponsor and the National Planning Committee, or its representative. The Event Sponsor receives recognition in all conference advertising and promotion, and during the conference. The Event Sponsor receives special recognition at the event sponsored. The Event Sponsor receives three free registrations to be distributed prior to that conference.

There are an additional three levels of sponsorship available to organizations, institutions, and individuals.

SPONSOR.

A Sponsor contributes at least $1,000 to a specific REP Conference. The co-sponsorship can be invoiced and paid in two installments but all payments are due prior to the Conference. This may be beneficial to academic institutions that preferred to spread the cost of sponsorship over a two-year period prior to the conference. Platinum Co-Sponsors are recognized in all conference advertising and promotion for the sponsored conference and receive two free registrations for members of their institution.

CO-SPONSORS.

A Co-Sponsor contributes a minimum of $500 to a specific REP Conference. The contribution must be paid in advance of that Conference. Gold Co-Sponsors are recognized in all conference advertising and promotion for the sponsored conference and receive one free registration for a member of their institution.

CONFERENCE BENEFACTOR.

A Conference Benefactor donates $100-500 beyond the registration fee to a specific REP Conference. All Benefactors are recognized in all REP advertising and promotions for that Conference, unless anonymity is requested.
